

Warm-up:

Alliteration occurs when two or more words in a sentence begin with the same letter. (i.e: The buzzing bee bounced from flower to flower.)

Pick one letter from the alphabet and then write an alliterative poem about any type of animal. Your poem must be at least 8 lines and contain as much alliteration as possible. Get competitive!